DIRECTOR: WHITE HOUSE SITUATION ROOM

SUBJECT: UN VOTE ON CAMBODIA

REF: Telecon with State Department

Phnom Penh's supporters have eked out a two vote margin to win priority for their resolution calling for deferment of the Cambodian representation issue. The vote was 58-56 with 20 abstentions. Parliamentary maneuvering is still underway and the pro-Phnom Penh resolution itself must still be put to a vote. The victory on priority, in all likelihood, means that Phnom Penh will retain its UN seat for another year.
